AVAILABLE AT THIS PRACTICE

Your genes affect how you process medication.

A cheek swab showing how quickly you clear certain medicines — information your prescriber can use when choosing a dose.

- A swab, taken once
- Describes processing, not whether a drug will work
- Discussed with your prescriber

Pharmacogenetics (PGX)

Ask at the front desk.

Your clinician can tell you whether it is right for you.

YOUR LOGO

Your Clinic
Address · phone · hours

aapmedical.com